

BECSA aims to become the authoritative industry voice to introduce and promote business espionage countermeasures in South Africa. It further aims to bring countermeasures experts together in a formal network to establish protocols, controls and guidelines to South African corporations and businesses to counter to growing threat of business espionage.